R. L. HUBBLE.

Of Lincoln county, is a candidate for the nomination for State Senator in this district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

WE print this issue a fairly good picture of Hon. Harvey Helm, together with what some of the papers of this district have said about his race for the democratic nomination for Congress. People in this end of the Eighth district are too well acquainted with Mr. Helm and his splendid record, both as a democrat and a gentleman, to make further comment of him necessary but for the benefit of the democratic voters of the remote counties we give a brief sketch of the gentleman. Mr. Helm is now holding his second term as county attorney, an office which he has filled with great credit. He represented Lincoln county in the Legislature in 1894 and the county was never better represented. He was a delegate from this district to the Kansas City convention and his presence was felt. He was campaign chairman in the Goebel election and did good work. Even before he reached his majority, Mr. Helm took a lively hand in politics and since he has been Lincoln county's foremost worker for democracy's cause. In both of Mr. Bryan's races he labored hard for the election of the great commoner and in every other election he has worked in season and out. No better democrat than Mr. Helm lives and in the estimation of his friends who know his true worth no honor is too great for him. We are for him for Congress because of his fitness for the office, because he is deserving of the honor and because of the excellent services we know he has rendered the party of parties.

IN the county mass conventions held Saturday throughout Kentucky for the selection of delegates to the democratic State convention in Louisville to-morrow, the democrats expressed their unmistakable choice for Hon. Lewis McQuown, of Bowling Green, whose candidacy for chairman of the State committee has been championed by Gov. Beckham and what has come to be known in the present fight as the Administration forces.

HON. HARVEY HELM could not wish a better state of affairs than now exist in his race for Congress. In slang parlance, "things are coming his way and coming fast." There now remains no scintilla of doubt about Madison, Rockcastle and Garrard being for him and his friends in Boyle and Jessamine are claiming those counties for Mr. Helm. The Harrodsburg Democrat's Tommy rot about the race being between Gilbert and Moore is the worst kind of buncombe and is printed for effect. The Mercer and Shelby entries are making a fight for second place in the race, each trying to save himself the humiliation of running last.

THE Harrodsburg Herald's 16-page Civic League edition was a hummer. Besides column after column of good reading matter the splendid issue contained well-printed half tone pictures of many of Mercer county's prominent men and buildings. It was a most creditable effort both on the part of the women who did the intellectual and Messrs. Pullam and Hutton, who did practical work on the paper.

THE only reason why the republicans are suggesting Cannon as a tall to the republican presidential kite is because he comes from a State the republicans must have if they would win the election and of which they are by no means sure.

POLITICAL.

The democratic vote for the presidential nomination now stands: For Parker, 172; for Hearst, 98; for Olney, 32; for Wall, 26; uncommitted, 304.

The democratic campaign in Tennessee will be opened about August 1, and Gov. Frazier and the electors for the State-at-large expect to speak in every county in the State.

Both Elwood T. Wall, of Wisconsin, and Marshall Field, the merchant prince, of Illinois, are spoken of as possibilities in the nomination of a democratic candidate for vice president.

Returns from the democratic primaries in Texas, covering 150 counties, show that 56 instructed for Parker and 10 for Hearst, the remainder being uninstructed, but most of the delegates are said to be for Parker.

At a conference in Chicago of democratic leaders from the State with John P. Hopkins and other politicians it was practically agreed that the Illinois democratic convention should endorse W. R. Hearst as its candidate for the presidential nomination.

It is the general opinion that Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, Senators Blackburn and McCreary and probably Congressman Ollie James will be Kentucky's "Big Four" to the democratic national convention. The unit rule will be invoked to govern the delegation, which may be instructed for Judge Parker for President.

Hon. James N. Kehoe, of Mayeville, claims his election as chairman of the State central committee by the following returns: For Kehoe 71 counties, seven Congressional districts and 663 votes. For his opponent, McQuown, 48 counties, four Congressional districts and 509 votes. Kehoe's majority 154. He has 76 votes more than is necessary to make a choice.

On the 79th ballot, Charles S. Deeneen, of Chicago, was nominated for Governor by the Illinois republican convention, at Springfield. Deeneen's nomination was brought about by a combination, Yates, Hamlin and Sherman withdrawing from the contest and throwing their influence to Deeneen, who received 957 votes to 523 for Lowden, 21 for Warner and 1 for Yates.

M. F. (Mike) Elkin, State Commander of the Maccabees, has returned to Stanford from Lexington and will enter upon an active campaign for State Senator. It has been decided by the democratic committee that Lincoln county is entitled to name the nominee and Lincoln always knows a good thing at sight. Elkin has more of the natural qualities of a legislator than any man ever born in Lincoln county. He is withal a pure-minded christian gentleman.—Somerset Journal.

Minton; Coolidge, Pulaski county, Thos. S. Stephens; Dallas, Pulaski county, H. G. Eaton; Elbu, Pulaski county, M. G. McKinney; Howe, Pulaski county, Battle Hardwick; Laura, Jackson county, Orville Fox; Mount Victor, Pulaski county, James Jones; Norwood, Pulaski county, Ed W. Martin; Parker's Lake, Pulaski county, J. C. Parker; Welborn, Pulaski county, Stephen C. Herrin.

Result of Mass Convention Held Saturday.

The democrats of Lincoln county met at the court house in mass convention Saturday and organized by making Maj. Isaac Shelby chairman and Eph D. Pennington secretary. The temporary organization was made permanent. The chair appointed a committee on resolutions as follows: M. S. Baughman, J. S. Owsley, Jr., M. F. North, B. W. Givens and T. W. Hutchison, which reported as follows:

Be it resolved by the democrats of Lincoln county in mass convention assembled:

1. That we approve of the action of the democratic State Executive Committee at its meeting in Lexington in calling a convention to meet in the city of Louisville on June 8, 1904, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the democratic National convention, to be held in St. Louis on July 6, 1904, and we approve the action of the said committee in calling county mass conventions to be held on June 4, 1904.

2. We endorse the candidacy of Judge M. C. Sauley for judge of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky. Judge Sauley is a splendid lawyer, a learned judge and would add great strength, dignity and erudition to the highest court of our State.

3. We endorse the candidacy of Hon. Harvey Helm for Congress, from this, the Eighth Congressional District. Mr. Helm is a gentleman, a scholar, a good lawyer and an orator, and would add great strength and wisdom to our party in the halls of Congress.

4. In presenting the names of Judge Sauley and Mr. Helm to the democrats of this appellate and Congressional district, we feel an honest pride, and we are justly proud of them, believing it would be a great pleasure to the democrats in both this Judicial and Congressional districts to vote for them.

5. That the following democrats of Lincoln county be selected as delegates to the Louisville convention, which meets in Louisville on Wednesday, June 8: Judge J. P. Bailey, J. S. Owsley, Jr., W. S. Burch, M. F. North, J. F. Holdam, S. M. Owens, A. C. Dunn, J. M. Alverson, E. C. Walton. And the following be selected as alternates: Major Isaac Shelby, B. W. Givens, J. Ward Moore, J. H. Carter, M. G. Reynolds, Dr. T. J. Bohon, Jerry Briscoe, Curtis Gover and J. Mack Reynolds.

6. That they be instructed to vote on all questions that may come before said convention as their judgment dictates, would redound to the best interest of our party in the State and Nation.

7. If, in any event, there should be a less number present than the whole number of delegates to which Lincoln county is entitled, then a less number than the whole number is hereby authorized to cast the entire vote for Lincoln county.

On motion duly made and seconded, the foregoing resolutions were adopted by the democrats of Lincoln county in mass convention on Saturday, June 4, 1904. ISAAC SHELBY, SR., Chm'n. E. D. PENNINGTON, Sec'y.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Daniel Richardson, a Methodist preacher, is dead at Elizabethtown, aged 81.

Eid, B. J. Pinkerton went to Spears, Jessamine county, Saturday and preached at the Christian church there Sunday. He preaches there twice each month and at Wilmore twice.

The committee sent from Louisville to notify Dr. John Gardner Murray, of his election to succeed the late Bishop Thomas Underwood Dudley returned from Baltimore. The committee was unable to learn from Dr. Murray whether or not he would accept the bishopric. Dr. Murray, however, assured the committee that as would give them a final answer within a few days.

HELM—Hon. Harvey Helm, of Lincoln, has been in this county all week, making an active, dignified canvass in the interest of his race for Congress. Mr. Helm's old friends are faithful and loyal to his cause, and his engaging personality and undoubted claims to Madison's votes are making him new admirers and supporters every day. It is impossible to look upon and engage in conversation with "The Tall Sycamore of the St. Asaph," as he has been dubbed, without instinctively becoming aware of the fact that Mr. Helm is a born leader of men and built of the timber of which Congressmen are made. It is hoped and thought that Madison will recognize these qualities by a solid endorsement of Mr. Helm when the county convention meets.—Richmond Register.

PRESTON, NO. 922.

This premium saddle stallion of the world will make the season of 1904 at the stable of J. C. Bailey, on Old Lancaster Street, in Stanford, Ky.

Preston is a brown horse, 12 years old, 15 1/2 hands high, a perfect model, with great style, action and speed.

Preston was sired by Washington No. 54, he by Cromwell No. 73, 1st dam Belle by Roderick; 2nd dam by a Denmark horse. Preston has shown against and defeated all the great show horses of Kentucky, such as Kentucky Artist, owned by J. T. Crenshaw, of Lexington, Ky., and Montgomery Chief, owned by Ball Bros. Why you should breed to Preston

1. Because he is the greatest show horse Kentucky ever produced
2. Because he is siring great show horses, such as Electra that was sold to Senator Vane for $2,000; Rebecca, that sold at New York Exchange to George Watson for $650; Miss Henrietta, owned by Gay Bros., that won more premiums in saddle and combined rings than any three-year-old out in 1903; a yearling colt sold to J. C. Cravins, of Illinois, for $500.
3. Because he is the only saddle stallion that ever sired a team of harness geldings that sold for $5,000.
4. Because he won the championship of the Louisville Horse Show in 1903, shown by Matt S. Cohen, of Richmond, Ky.
5. Because he has won more money in the show ring than any other saddle stallion in Kentucky.
6. I will be glad to show him to any one at my stable and invite those wishing to breed to a fine saddle stallion to see him before breeding. I will stand him at $10 the season or $15 to insure a living colt.
